

AMERICAN ASTRONOMICAL SOCIETY

This agreement must be signed and returned to the editorial office before the American Astronomical Society (AAS) can publish your paper. In the event the article is not judged acceptable for publication in the journal you will be notified in writing and the copyright and all rights conferred by copyright shall revert to you.

PUBLICATION AND TRANSFER OF COPYRIGHT AGREEMENT Manuscript number #ApJ82716R

A Powerful AGN Outburst in RBS 797

Article title

Cavagnolo, McNamara, Wise, Nulsen, Bruggen, Gitti, and Rafferty

Names of authors

Certification: The author(s) certifies that the above-named article (the "Article"): (1) is original with the author(s), (2) does not infringe any copyright or violate any other right of any third parties or any obligations we may have with them, (3) is not defamatory or contrary to law, and (4) has not been previously published elsewhere and is not being considered for publication elsewhere in any form, except as provided herein.

Author Rights: AAS grants to the author(s) (or their below-named employers, in the case of works made for hire) the following rights. All copies of the Article made under any of these rights shall include notice of the AAS copyright.

- (1) All proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights.
- (2) The right after publication by the AAS to grant or refuse permission to third parties to republish all or part of the Article or a translation thereof. In the case of whole articles only, third parties must first obtain permission from the AAS before any right of further publication is granted. The AAS may choose to publish an abstract or portions of the Article before the AAS publishes it in a journal.
- (3) The right to use all or part of the Article in future works and derivative works of their own of any type, and to make copies of all or part of the Article for the authors' use for educational or research purposes.
- (4) In the case of a work made for hire, the right of the employer to make copies of the Article for the employer's internal use, but not for resale.

Certification of Government Employment: An article prepared by a government officer or employee as part of his or her official duties may not be eligible for copyright if copyright cannot vest in works written by government employees; for instance, US Government employees cannot claim copyright. If all the authors of the article are government employees, one of the authors should sign here. If at least one of the authors is not such a government employee, that author should sign the agreement in the next box below.

Author signature

Date

Copyright Assignment: Copyright in the Article is hereby transferred to the AAS for the full term of copyright throughout the world, effective as of date of acceptance of the Article for publication in a journal of the AAS. The copyright consists of all rights protected by copyright laws of the United States and of all foreign countries, in all languages and forms of communication, and includes all material to be published as part of the Article in any format or medium. The AAS shall have the right to register copyright to the Article in its name as claimant, whether separately or as part of the journal issue or other medium in which the Article is included.

Author signature

Date Mar. 7, 2011

If the Article has been prepared as a work made for hire, the agreement should be signed by both the employee and the employer.

Employer's authorized signature

Date